The Kyle Ray Cooper Aspiring Musicians Program (KaRe Camp) is a guitar-focused music program that was established in honor of Kyle Ray Cooper; a talented musician and guitarist, native to Casa Grande, Arizona. It is a program that was created to honor the memory of Kyle and to continue to allow his passion for the guitar to impact future generations of children in Casa Grande. Based in the belief that music enriches a child's mind, enables creativity and serves as a therapeutic outlet for children's emotions, our program is dedicated to developing a passion for guitar in young children, in the hopes that their love of playing music will positively impact many aspects of their lives and carry through into adulthood.
